Two other Glades accidents, Sunday, brought injuries to four persons when drivers lost control of their cars. Patrolman Bertrand reported. All involved were from out of town.

Bullets in Washington

Without meaning to make light of the five Congressmen shot by Puerto Ricans in Washington this week, especially with the life of one hanging in the balance, we would like to take this opportunity to note that in our opinion the Puerto Ricans got into the wrong Chamber at the Capitol.

Their unwise expenditure of bullets might have had a quieting effect on Mad-Dog Inquisitor Joe McCarthy, had they shot from the gallery of the Senate instead of the House.

It is probably only wishful thinking that perhaps a bullet whizzing past McCarthy's ear might cause him to become more introspective and less thoughtless about his attacks on just any American citizen he decides is a "red."

We think, along with some of Florida's legislators, that convicted Communists should be deprived of their citizenship, as President Eisenhower has requested.

We don't and never will think that Joe McCarthy's slapdash belaboring of anybody who disagrees with his tactics will cleanse this nation of the real Communists.

BY WIN PENDLETON

CURRENT STORY: Members of Congress were laughing last week at this one: Two rabbits were running and they could afford a field. One rabbit said to the other rabbit, "Why are we running so fast?" The other rabbit said, "You've heard?" Sen. McCarthy is investigating goats. "What's that got to do with us, if I may ask?" "We're not goats," the answer he got was, "That's right, but can you prove it?"

GOOD NEWS: PROGRESS: Three weeks ago we told about Congressman Bill Lantaff's efforts to get action on his bill designed to increase business between the United States and our Latin American neighbors by cutting off the unfair tax on travel to certain of those countries. We mentioned that he had written directly to President Eisenhower asking for help. This week he was invited to the White House to discuss the problem with Clarence Randall, who has just written a report to the President on his study of our foreign commerce relations. Randall told Lantaff that his bill was a good one and that he would do what he could to help get action on it. Since then Lantaff has had staff conferences and/or luncheons with the Ambassadors from Cuba, Haiti, Costa Rica and Panama. His next step is a confab with Dr. Milton Eisenhower—brother of the President. Said the Congressman, in talking about his footwork, "It's a lot like trying to get something through the Legislature in Tallahassee only 100 times as hard."

HIGHWAY SAFETY: Glen Woodard, Jr., chairman of the Florida delegation to the President's Highway Safety Conference said to his group before they headed home after a three-day stay here, "It's nice to come to Washington and compare notes with other safety people from all over the country, but our answer lies on the highway." Mr. Woodard said that he was from Florida and not on Pennsylvania Avenue. Here with him, representing Florida: State Treasurer Ed Larson, Chairman Cecil Webb, Col. H. N. Kirkman, Harry E. Wood, Nat Rambo, Sam Turnbull, R. T. Gupton, Peaslee Streets, Capt. C. E. Taylor, all of Tallahassee; W. T. Davis, St. Petersburg; Marvin L. Holloway, Tampa; "Son" Turner, Justin R. Weddell, R. S. Wehmeier, Pensacola; J. F. Robinson, Walter C. Mallory, Orlando; J. C. McClane, Winter Park; R. J. Finley, O. C. Beacraft, Miami; J. T. Lowe, Jacksonville. Frank Eskridge, Lake City; Miss Elizabeth Ann Cerny, Punta Gorda; Miss Lennie Humphries, Chief J. T. Lowe, Jacksonville. Opening session was addressed by President Eisenhower.

SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE

STRIVES CONSTANTLY FOR PERFECT SERVICE

The management of every truly great concern has before it an ideal—the hope of perfect service. This dream is difficult if not impossible of actual achievement, great obstacles and a host of minor difficulties always bar the way. The great constantly expanding SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE CO. is particularly hindered from perfection by actual material shortage, mostly war-born and inevitable.

Mr. D. L. Green, the manager at West Palm Beach, would like to extend telephone service to each person who wants it . . . immediately, but this is truly impossible. The demand far exceeds the available supplies and equipment on hand or in reach.

Each employee of this concern is willing and ready to help in every way possible. With smiling faces and courtesy they meet both the reasonable and the unreasonable demand. Mr. Green is to be praised because he has been able to install into his employees this patience, this willingness in the face of obstacles, to reach constantly for the dream, the hope of perfect service.

BY SCHATZI

It is with a flash of glittering white teeth that I greet you this week.

I am in training for the observance of National Smile Week, which begins Monday.

If all the columns written about the "special week" racket were published, end to end, you'd sure get tired of reading.

But the month of March is so loaded with special events—conferred commercial ones as well as legitimate ones, that I can't overlook a few words on the subject myself.

As I show my canine teeth next week to observe "Smile" week (let's all go around grinning at each other), I will not be bothered reading a darned thing to improve my mind. Next week, you see, is also "Save Your Vision Week."

I'm up a real tree on how to observe "Irish Linen Week" beginning Mar. 14. Certainly the bosses aren't going to spring the guest sheets for me to sleep on. As for "National Wild Life Week" beginning Mar. 21—well, I don't know just how to interpret that, and think it is just as well.

Of a great deal more significance this month is Ash Wednesday for Christians, which was Wednesday of this week, Purim, the Jewish holiday, Mar. 19.

On Mar. 3, 1789, the U. S. began operating under the Constitution. The U. S. Post Office has a double birthday this month—Mar. 3, the first U.S. postage stamps were used, in 1847; Mar. 12, the general post office was established in 1789. The Girl Scouts will be 42 years old Mar. 12, the Campfire Girls Mar. 17, which also is observed by our Irish brethren as St. Patrick's Day.

These are just a few of the observances taking place this month.

Anybody know how to figure a yearly income of bones and kibble, for that Mar. 15 date?

OBSERVATIONS

By BENJAMIN S. ROBERTS

John Foster Dulles, our Secretary of State, arrived early this week in Caracas for the Tenth Inter-American Conference.

It is not likely that he had his room-boy go across the Plaza of the Liberator to get a thermos full of coffee for his pre-conference breakfast and probably he was allowed to walk in front of the Liberator's statue even if he did carry a brief case. In Venezuela's capital it is customary for hotel guests to have their Espresso coffee brought from the coffee house each morning, and is disrespectful to carry luggage or packages through the Plaza.

Even so, Mr. Dulles saw at first hand the character of the progress evident in Venezuela's capital. If he did not meet one of the 50,000 displaced persons imported via government airlift to help modernize this most northerly of the South American republics he evidently saw what they have accomplished.

Dollar Diplomacy and "Yanqui" imperialism are not responsible for North American participation in Venezuela's prosperity.

Money and man-power were lacking in Venezuela to exploit the abundant oil, iron ore and other natural resources. Private American capital has been invested at the invitation of the Venezuelan government. It is teamed with the labor supply obtained from Europe's displaced persons camps for the purpose of advancing the Venezuelan, political and economic life and to the end that available critical materials are accessible in our own Hemisphere.

One displaced person is typical. Venezuela sought Latin for her expansion program. Tony came as a "farm laborer" and adjusted himself to agrarian pursuits until his chance came to use the five languages which he spoke fluently. A North American firm with offices in Caracas needed representatives and Tony got one of the jobs. It is too soon for Tony or any of his fellow immigrants to Venezuela to be fully adjusted to their new life. It is certain though that he and his fellow citizens will make responsible democratic citizens dedicated to national progress.

These are the kind of friends and neighbors we need.

Bond Sales Still High

PAHOKEE —Harry M. McIntosh, local savings bond chairman, has reported that savings bond sales during January in Palm Beach County as reported by the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta were $204,943, while sale for the entire state amounted to $8,092,461. This lacks less than 1% of equalling last January's high which had been 56% above January 1952.

"National figures for January," McIntosh said, "were the highest for the month in seven years and exceeded 1953 by 10%." The redemption of unexpired E and H bonds at the same time were the lowest in spite of a heavier volume of maturities as a consequence of 1944's peak of war bond sales. The total redemption of matured and unexpired E and H bonds was only 3% higher than last January and was $114,218,000 less than the month's sales."

"Of the $10,754,000,000 of E bonds that have matured since May 1, 1951, the owners of $8,100,000,000 or 75% are holding them under the 10 year extension privilege, and the volume of these two issues now outstanding has grown to $36,887,000,000," McIntosh concluded.

This Is The American Way

• In a world torn by strife and selfishness, it enhances my faith in humankind to see our people help each other cheerfully and enthusiastically through the American Red Cross. You who join the Red Cross ignore all barriers and differences . . . but you never ignore a plea for help. You give your help freely, because you want to. That is the American way.

I am proud to be a member of the Red Cross because it personifies the American generosity of spirit, the spontaneous outpouring of help to others. America needs the Red Cross in so many ways—for disaster relief, for its blood program, for service to the men and women in our armed forces. I hope that each of you will join our Red Cross.
